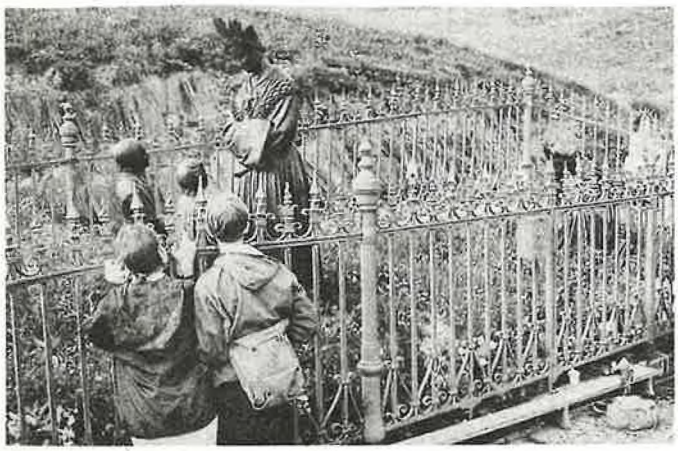
Irene Helmick, Cathy Hilton and Beth Helstand relax on our beautiful visit to La Salette in the French Alps last June.



Beautiful bronze statues mark the spots where Our Lady appeared to the two children in 1846.

This spring at the site of the apparitions was the coldest and most refreshing water we tasted anywhere on our trip — with the possible exception of the spring at Notre-Dame de Banneux in Belgium.

In This Issue:

Oh, my, you are going to find lots of pictures in this issue! I hope you enjoy them. Several good letters to the editor start on page 18. Mary Martinez has a couple of interesting updates on the sinister intrigue within the Vatican, which is still poisoning so many unwitting Catholics — See page 10.

Note the recipes for healthier bread on pages 26-27. Please read the shocking story on pages 16-17 of what happened to the Randy and Vicki Weaver family in northern Idaho last August. And look for other gems hidden here and there in this issue. I bet you won't find many other publications like this one. If you like it please tell your friends — thanks!

Fraternité Notre Dame

The French sisters are quickly getting settled into their new home at 238 Columbia Street in Delta: — Sister Mary Odile and Sister Mary Francesca, Fraternité Notre-Dame, P.O. Box 685, Delta, Colorado 81416. Telephone (303) 874-1139. Lonnie and Karen Northrup of Olathe, Colorado, gave them a 1980 Subaru station wagon. It is so good to see these dear servants of Our Lady open a mission in Western Colorado. May it prosper and grow!

Religious Articles & Church Goods

It is an encouraging sign to see more and more traditional-Catholic-owned religious supply shops opening. One I know of is: Immaculate Heart of Mary Co., P.O. Box 137, Mauston, Wisconsin 53948. Phone: (608) 565-2199. They say they have a large selection of Catholic books, religious articles and church goods. Write for a free catalog. Phone hours (Central Time) 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday–Tuesday; 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday. Free shipping on orders of $10 or more in U.S. and Canada.

Omlor vs. McCarthy or The Mass vs. Novus Ordo

Questioning the Validity of the "Mass" which Uses the New, All-English Canon, P.H. Omlor, 1968, is an essay that was recently (1989) rebuttaled by Msgr.

John F. McCarthy (Rome) in a paper attempting to disprove Omlor's arguments and thesis.

Now (1990) there is available a response to McCarthy's rebuttal. That response is titled Questioning the Validity of McCarthy's Case. It not only defends Omlor's 1968 essay via authoritative Church documentation, but goes well beyond by . . .

• Highlighting defects in both form and intention of the Novus Ordo.

• Demonstrating the quasi-masonic spirit and thrust of the Novus Ordo.

• Documenting that countless would-be Catholics are being led into apostacy by the new church's false ecumenism and participation in false worship rites.

Traditional Catholic Singles' Conference

Below are some notes given to your editor after the first Colorado Traditional Catholic Singles' Conference held in Olathe, Colorado, last August:

- Publish agenda months ahead.
- Divide by age groups older (20 and up).
- Bonfire at night with songs and talk about selves.
- Mass, confession and benediction every day.
- Two or three groups listening to different talks at same time.
- Use of audio and video tapes for talks.
- Ed Dumphy of Idaho will make Confidence in God booklets.

Subjects:

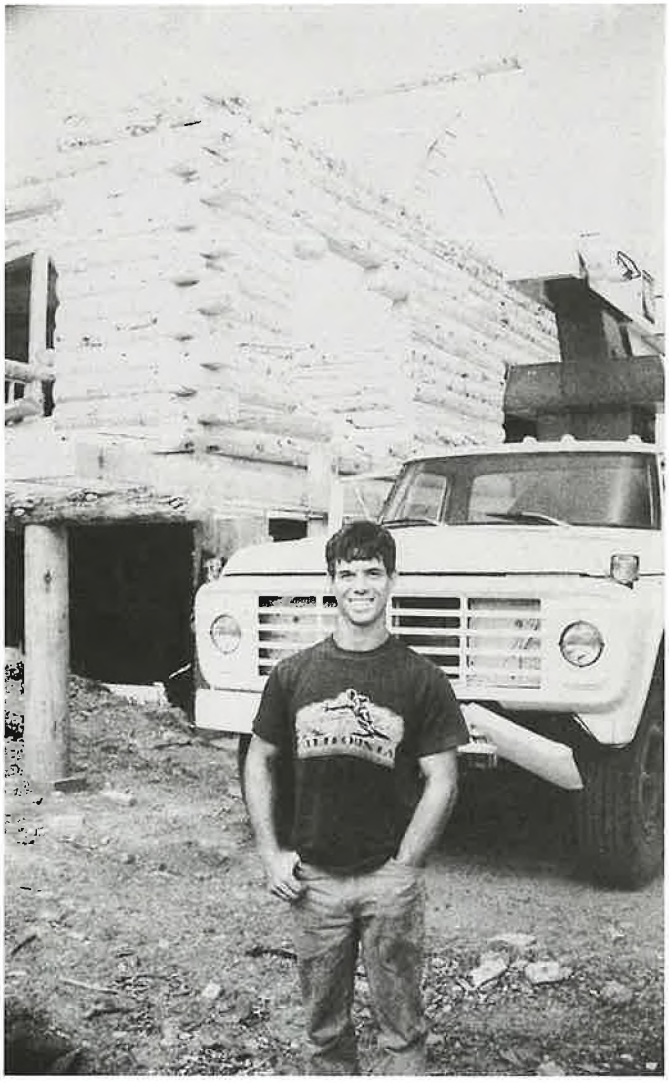
- Class on treating the Blessed Sacrament
- Manners and dress for church and Mass.
- How to understand Protestant mindset.
- Use of Holy Water.
- Types of blessings and why they are needed. (Bonfire would be a good place to practice Latin songs.)

Erwin Grinnan, 1224 N. Laguna, Farmington, N.M. 87401. Phone: (505) 325-1619

Erwin is in charge of organizing the 1993 conference. If you are even remotely interested, please let him hear from you! Looks like it is going to be the first or second week in August at a lodge north of Durango, Colorado.

Time Share for Sale

To pay for this issue and some other debts, your editor is trying to sell his interval ownership (time-share) condo at Pagosa Springs, Colorado. Sleeps eight adults. Can trade for a week at other condos all over the world. The week I own is week 50 right before Christmas. I already have three weeks in the bank which can be used most any time. Worth about $600 each. Total package only $4,995.



Jim Bollinger of Olathe, Colorado, gave Singles' Conference attendees a tour of a big log house he is helping to build near Ridgway, Colorado.

Father Philippe, S.N.D., from Frechou, France, was one of the two priests at the Singles' Conference. With him on Highway 550 overlooking scenic Ouray, Colorado, is Ed Dumphy who came all the way from northern Idaho for the conference.

Bishop Kozik blesses a statue of Our Lady on land at the edge of Frechou. It belongs to a young Catholic man planning to build his new home there.

Father Jones listens to Melle. Calmjane relate some of her experiences at Frechou since Father Jean-Marie's arrival there in the early 1970s. She taught in a Catholic school for 40 years.

At Grenoble we found a Formula 1 Hotel, comparable to America's Motel 6. Three to a room for the same price as one. It was an answer to our prayers, at least for the poorer ones of our pilgrimage.

A few of the Americans were sure surprised with some of the old French bathroom facilities. That's really a toilet?! How do you use it?

Father Jean-Marie and Father Marie Bernard saw us off at the train station in Clisson after we attended Mass in Boussay, Sunday June 21. This was in the Vendee region in western France in the area where St. Louis Marie de Montfort preached and is buried.

Will we ever forget pulling our luggage up the hill to the Hotel in Lisieux? Arriving in town without any reservations made for an adventure which we don't plan to repeat.

Speaking of adventures, these three ladies, Marie Martinez, Becky Moreland and Irene Helmick climbed over this wire fence late one night after they found themselves locked into the shrine grounds at Lisieux.

Message given by the Blessed Mother to Lorraine Archuleta-Holman

June 26 — 3:44 a.m.

Do get up my little faithful one, I have yet another message to be given to my dear children.

Today I shall repeat over and over again about my messages I have given to you dear children, how important they all are especially the message I give to you about the salvation of your soul. This message my children, I do wish you would try and comprehend because my Son Jesus and I your Heavenly Mother do not wish to see that one soul should perish, not your soul dear children, we do not want to see that your soul should perish into eternal damnation. That is why I come daily to you to plead with you about saving your soul as time approaches your Earth fast.

Reread all my messages I have given you pertaining to the destruction of the church and how it will get worse. If you do not wish to hear me repeat myself over and over again, then seek out my Son's true churches before your man-made church will get worse. Take heed of my messages, children, take heed of my forewarnings I give to you about what lies ahead of you if you remain in your man-made church.

You are living in the latter days of the Apocalypse children. I have repeatedly asked of you to read the Holy Scripture of the Apocalypse and you have not listened to me. I see but very few of you reading, so very few. Children I come to forewarn you about these latter days you are living in. I come to prepare your soul for these latter days for my Son's coming and so many of you are refusing to listen to me. You merrily go about your way and refuse to listen to the importance of all my messages. I have repeatedly said to you that it will take you so long to change from your wicked wicked ways to prepare your soul for my Son's coming and you do not have long to dally. The time approaches your Earth fast children and you must try to begin your preparation of your soul. Do not be like your forefathers generations before you who also refused to listen to my Son's forewarnings. Learn my children, learn from them in Holy Scripture what happened to them, they perished without saving their souls. Do you wish to be like them also? Do you wish to stubbornly refuse my messages as they stubbornly refused also? Foolish, foolish children to be also like your forefathers of generations ago.

I have been given the duty by my Heavenly Father to bring back all my strays, you children, you who refuse to listen. I come daily pleading with you to bring you back to my Son Jesus, back to my Son's true teachings in His true church, the one which He has already established for you. The one where due reverence is given to Him, where knees bend approaching my Son Jesus and where my Son Jesus is received on the tongue and not on the hand. I come to bring you back children to my Son Jesus to where the true, holy, Catholic, apostolic faith is at in my Son's true church.

Reread my messages about what I have given to you about the destruction of the church, your man-made church. Reread all my messages I have given you pertaining to the destruction of the church and how it will get worse. If you do not wish to hear me repeat myself over and over again, then seek out my Son's true churches before your man-made church will get worse. Take heed of my messages, children, take heed of my forewarnings I give to you about what lies ahead of you if you remain in your man-made church.

Read my messages I have given you at Fatima and La Salette as I am again repeating them to my little soldier my little faithful one. As in the beginning I have said to you, these are not new messages I give to you but they need to be repeated because we see so very few of you who are listening to us, my Son Jesus and I your Heavenly Mother. The others merrily go about your way and refuse to obey us and take serious the urgency and importance of all of my messages. You are the foolish ones who refuse for preparation of your soul, you are the foolish ones who refuse to obey us and take serious our messages of the forewarnings of what lies ahead of you. You children who do not want to save your soul will be taken off to slaughter. You who remain faithful to your modern ways. You my elders who will be the first to be led off to slaughter because you knew my Son Jesus true teachings and yet you now have become so relax in your protestant way. You my foolish children who are so like your forefathers of generations ago. So foolish to refuse to listen to my messages and toss them away.

I come to bring back all my strays, back to my son Jesus children, you who have gone astray from my Son Jesus, His true teachings, His true church, the true, holy Catholic, apostolic "church," the true, holy, Catholic, apostolic "faith." I come to bring you back to where this is in my Son's true church the one where knees bend approaching my Son, the one where he is given on the tongue and not on the hand, the one where due reverence is given, where women children wear their headpiece, where my children dress properly in attire, where all of my faithful followers pay due respect to my Son Jesus. This my dear children is where I come to bring all of my strays back to, where my Son Jesus is given due respect which he rightfully deserves. Do away with your man-made church children and return back to my Son Jesus in my Son's true churches where He awaits you there and so do I. Now children now as time approaches your Earth fast and you do not have long to dally.

Help Jesus and the Blessed Mother spread this important message — deliver to friends.

Lorraine Holman lives in Denver, Colorado. Every night for the past year or two she has been awakened to take down a message. These messages seem to be especially directed to Novus Ordo Catholics. Are these messages authentic? Are they really from Heaven? Judging from what I know about the life and circumstances of Mrs. Holman, and the general orthodox content of the messages, I'm inclined to think so. In the past God has used such human instruments to warn His people. Most people are ignoring the warnings from on High, but they will not be able to say that God did not warn them.

PRESS NOTICE

MEXICO CITY — Mary Ball Martinez, longtime Vatican correspondent and author of the controversial "The Undermining of the Catholic Church," leaving to fulfill a series of lecture engagements in California, takes along some startling news from Mexico where diplomatic relations with the Vatican have just been restored after a lapse of more than a century.

Carlos Vazquez Rangel, Grand Commander of the Supreme Council of the Masons of Mexico, in an interview granted to the leading political weekly, "Processo," identifies the new Ambassador to the Holy See, Enrique Olivares Santana, as a fellow lodge member, a "militant of honor" in the Scottish Rite and "the most distinguished Mason in recent years." Former Governor of the State of Aguascalientes and former Secretary of the Interior, Olivares heads the Political Action Committee of the ruling party, the PRI.

The Grand Commander, while expressing some fear that Olivares may encounter certain "reactionaries" in Rome, assures "Processo" that he is bound to find fellow Masons since "within the eight city blocks that make up the Vatican State no fewer than four Scottish Rite Lodges are functioning. Many of the highest Vatican officials are Masons and in certain countries where the church is not allowed to operate, it is the lodges that carry on Vatican affairs, clandestinely."

Mary Martinez autographing copies of "The Undermining of the Catholic Church."

Referring to the Second Vatican Council, Vazquez recalled the mission of Mexico's Archbishop Mendez Arceo. A Fellow lodge member, the Cuernavaca prelate was charged with urging the revocation of the Bull of Clement V which forbade Catholics to join Masonry under pain of excommunication. Mendez Arceo succeeded, thanks to the fact that the Pope of the time, John XXIII, was a Mason, said Vasquez. "On the same day in Paris the profane Angelo Roncalli and the profane Giovanni Montini (Paul VI) were initiated into the august mysteries of the Brotherhood. Thus it was that much that was achieved at the Council was based on Masonic principles."

Dear Mr. Kase:
Greetings in the lovely name of Jesus;
Inclosed is receipt for check received for final interest in the amount of $111.56 and receipt for full and final payment in the amount of $12,748.65...In settlement of the mortgage balance on the church property located at 1404 and 1406 E. 21st St. Pueblo, Colorado 81001.
Mr. Kase, I wish to extend my thanks and appreciation to you and all concerned for your faithfulness and promptness in making payments.
It has been a blessing to do business with the People of Immaculate Heart of Mary Chapel.
If there is any thing that I need to further do cleaning up the final business of dealings, please let me know.
The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:
The LORD make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:
The LORD lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

"ALL liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone" (lying church members included).

Several years ago the Immaculate Heart of Mary Chapel in Pueblo, Colorado, purchased a charming little church and rectory from a nice Protestant minister, B.E. Sallee, who built them with his own hands. Accepting a small down payment, he financed us at 7.0 percent interest with a note maturing in 20 years. Last summer Father Francis Berchtold of Colorado Springs surprised us by donating nearly $13,000 to pay off the remainder of our debt. He had lived frugally, saving up the stipends we'd been paying him. We were most edified, and truly taken out of a tight spot by Father's generosity.

Last summer parish volunteers painted Our Lady Queen of Heaven church at 2nd and Dodge Streets in Delta, Colorado.

Getting high up on the scaffolding was a bit of an experience for some of us.

Amy Bollinger was one of our happy and energetic painters!

Mrs. Linda Resendez was responsible for some beautiful landscaping and flowers for the altar at our Pueblo Chapel. She is the secretary for the parish's Legion of Mary Praesidium.

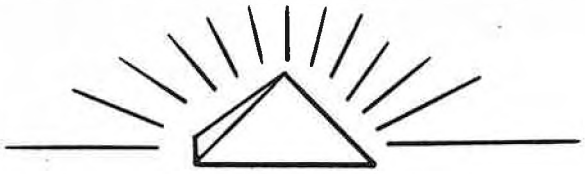
While in Chicago your editor was pleased to visit with Father Frank (a traditional Catholic priest in Rockford, Illinois), Mr. Tom Nelson (of TAN BOOKS), and Jeffrey L. Knight from St. Mary's, Kansas (a noteworthy salesman for TAN BOOKS).

The original manuscripts of the New Testament were written in the Greek language. The Greeks used their alphabet in place of numbers. That means every word, name and place in the New Testament can be written as a number. The name most prominent in the New Testament—Lord Jesus Christ, Κυριος Ιησους Χριστος, has a number equivalent of 3168. How amazing to find that the outer stone circle at Stonehenge has a circumference of 316.8 feet. The mystical New Jerusalem has a perimeter of 31,680,000 feet. And if we drew a square around the circle of the earth, it would measure 31680 miles. Could it be coincidence, or was it part of a master design?

Through the aid of the computer, new evidence is now available that reveals a magnificent purpose, involving man and his Creator!



Archaeology has never found the missing head stone of the Great Pyramid. It would have been huge—nearly 48 feet wide and 30 feet high. When Jesus quoted Psalm 118, "The stone which the builders rejected has become the Head Stone of the corner," was he giving us a clue to the mystery of the missing head stone?

You will thrill as the evidence unfolds—as each piece in the puzzle fits, and as a beautiful picture emerges! Share the wonder and the joy that thousands of people throughout the world have experienced through these exciting books!

America Has Gun Control!

It is Used To Rob Americans of Their Rights and Their Lives

On August 21, 1992, the Federal Government of the United States laid siege to an American family in the remote mountains of Idaho. In the process they deliberately assassinated a mother and her fourteen-year-old son, neither of whom had ever committed a crime nor even been charged with any wrongdoing.

One man, his wife, their four children and a young friend, living peacefully in their mountain cabin, were descended upon by more than four hundred (400) kevlar helmeted, armor jacketed agents of the Federal Government. This heavily armed force consisted of special elements from the U.S. Marshal's Office, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, the FBI, and members of the Washington, D.C. Capitol Police, supplemented by some five hundred (500) members of the Idaho National Guard.

Randy and Vicki Weaver, their four children (Sara, 16; Samuel, 13; Rachel, 10; and infant daughter Elisheba, 10 months) and young Kevin Harris, so threatened the security of the United States, and so frightened the police agencies, that full-automatic assault weapons, armored personnel carriers, .50 caliber machine-guns, a shotgun toting robot (called a ZOG-BOT), sophisticated listening devices, truck loads of heavy military equipment, and even helicopter gunships were arrayed against their lone cabin.

What was the terrible "crime" of this family? The Weavers did not like the growing decadence in America and had retreated to a simpler form of life. The family had become completely self-sufficient. They hunted and raised their own food. They made and mended their own clothing. They did not own a telephone or do business with banks. They had become independent Americans who did not fit into the usury-based economic system. They had their own interpretation of the Bible, and they were racial separatists. The Weavers may not have reflected the thinking of most main-stream Americans (who no longer stand for much of anything) but, according to their neighbors and those who knew them well, they were not the wild-eyed, hate-filled fanatics that the news media and government agents have depicted them to be.

Randy had been indicted for selling two "sawed-off shotguns" to an undercover agent of the BATF. The gun barrels were allegedly shorter than the eighteen inches which the government will allow. Randy insists, however, that the agent had badgered him into selling regular hunting shotguns with standard factory barrels. He maintains that the barrels were later cut off by the agents, and that he was set-up because he had refused to become an informant for the BATF and would not help them entrap other citizens.

Randy was scheduled to be tried for criminal firearms violations. However, in view of the unjust treatment he had received, and because of repeated threats by the BATF, Randy became convinced that he would not receive a fair trial. Therefore, he did not appear in court on the day appointed.

The System will go to any length to protect the lives of murderers, thieves, drug dealers, rapists and child molesters. By contrast, Federal agencies think that independent Americans who love liberty and oppose government controls, have no right to live in freedom -- or perhaps no right to live at all. So, instead of sending the Sheriff to speak to Randy Weaver, or even a Marshal or two (in uniform so they could be recognized) to apprehend him, the Feds donned camouflage battle fatigues and went up Weaver's Mountain to kill him and his entire household. They were prepared to use massive firepower, air strikes, incendiary bombs, and snipers.

On the day of the assault, the family dog detected the intruders who were lurking in the woods. They shot the dog, and when Sammy ran for home they shot him several times in the back. The next day, a cold-blooded sniper (a Federal agent, paid with our tax dollars) shot the mother between the eyes while she held her ten-month-old baby in her arms. It seems a special psychological analysis of the family had been conducted at FBI headquarters before the attack began, which indicated the mother, Vicki, was a particular threat to the Federal agents.

That is why the Feds named their mountain operations center "Camp Vicki". And, that is why they blew her head off with a high-powered, telescopic sniper rifle -- at close range!

Later, a military helicopter was flown in, carrying a suspended fuel bladder which was intended to be dropped on the cabin to incinerate the trapped family. If they determined it to be desirable, the Feds were prepared to blow the entire hilltop off the map. Only the loud protests of the family's friends, neighbors and supporters, and the heroic intervention of Col. James "Bo" Gritz and the patriotic ex-law officer, Jack McLamb, prevented the entire family from being murdered.

As the news media began telling the story, citizens nation-wide became aware of the atrocity which was taking place in Idaho. Hundreds of people, incensed at the events, began making their way to Idaho. Paul Harvey broadcast the news and called for the cessation of killing and the providing of legal defense for the Weavers. The real criminals were now exposed.

While leaders of the operations, and many of those in "flak jackets", armed with automatic weapons remained arrogant; many of the men in federal and state service, especially the state guardsman, now realized they had been deceptively involved in a vicious, unwarranted, pre-planned slaughter of an American family. Millions now recognized it for what it was -- a violent, unconstitutional demonstration of government power and tyranny.

Consequently, tensions at the scene increased, nerves became frayed, and trigger-fingers became itchy. In self-defense, the Feds set up road blocks miles from the scene to prevent concerned citizens from reaching the area; removed many of the people living in the area from their private property; and ordered the National Guard disarmed -- another example of Federal arrogance and domination over the once sovereign states.

Such barbarities are a common practice of the governments in Communist countries such as China and other areas of the world where tyrants reign. Far too many Americans have taken comfort in the thought that it can't happen here. But it does happen here! In this instance, the tyrants were forced to back down. But, if the besiegers had been foreign troops under a United Nations flag (and we will be seeing that dreaded spectacle in the not too distant future) there would have been no backing down.

Yet, because patriots who had the knowledge and ability to take charge appeared on the scene, and perhaps because a faint flicker of the American spirit and some small lingering respect for individual, God-given rights still burned in the hearts of many of those policemen and soldiers, the deaths of the rest of the Weaver family were averted.

The federal agencies spent millions of dollars on this effort to eradicate a family which opposed The System. This was to be an example to strike fear into the hearts of the rest of us. This was a KGB style operation, but it backfired. Many thousands of Americans now more clearly understand that the government in the U.S. has become bloated, wasteful, irresponsible, insensitive, dishonest, deceptive and immoral; and the agencies of that government have become tyrannical and are out of control. Even the elected officials (who supposedly run the country) now live in fear of the IRS, BATF, the Justice Department and the hundreds of other agencies and departments, whose agents view the American people as chickens to be plucked or sheep to be sheared; and, if the people object, they are considered dogs to be kicked or shot.

Randy Weaver will have his day in court, and, if there is any justice left in the courts of this country, he will prevail. However, it is not Randy Weaver who should be on trial. The killers who murdered his wife and son, and the criminals who organized the assault and ordered the killing, should be indicted and tried for capital crimes.

Patriots, gun owners, constitutionalists, Christians, concerned citizens, and everyone who fears for the future of the United States, and longs for our former way of life -- each of us and all of us must not let this arrogant and criminal display of force be relegated to the memory hole!

'Tis the times' plague, when madmen lead the blind.

Caritas Christi urget nos!

Dear Father Jones:

Ave Maria! I hope you will remember me and our little visit to Spokane with the Seminarian Luis. Excuse my poor English, I hope you are going to understand.

I would like receiving my letter you will be well, the health and the soul.

This letter has two reasons, one is to close a little more our relations, and the other is to beg you some help, some aid for us, not in the spiritual order but in the economical. We are passing by a difficult moment.

One person lent us a house to stay in Guadalajara but is only until the end of December and then we must rent another one but the problem is that we have no money to do it. Here the people is very poor and we have to sustain economically our 18 nuns too.

I want to beg you if you can help us with some donations. If you can look for a benefactors group to help us economically. We are going to speak with Mgr. Pivarunas too when he come to Guadalajara next 20th of November to perform the ordination of the deacon Luis Argueta.

Father, excuse me if I bother you with my letter, but I confess you that outside of Monsignor Pivarunas and you we don't know anybody in the U.S.A. to ask for helping us.

Our society "St. Vincent Ferrer" is marching very well by God's grace, we are only beginning and the beginnings are always hard and difficult. Our idea is to buy a little house here, in Guadalajara but for us, now is absolutely impossible because of our poverty but if it's the God will, one day we will be able to buy it.

In Mexico we have a lot of work, the Oratory "Immaculate Heart of Mary" is full of faithfuls who come to receive the Holy Sacraments and listen the true Holy Mass. We try to give them all what they need, for us the first is "to look for the God's kingdom and its justice" and the rest (we are sure) will come by addition.

I'd like you to come to visit us and may see you again. Your are invited to come with us where you want. I want to show you our work, our apostolate; I want you to know our nuns, the faithfuls, etc.

Father, if you can, please, come to visit us. We want to know how you are, what is your work. Have you got a lot of faithfuls? Please, write us. We will pray for you and yours, please pray for us and remember us in the "memento. ." at the Holy Mass. And pray specially the 22nd of November for Luis Argueta because he will be ordained Priest by Bishop Pivarunas here in Guadalajara.

Excuse me again, Father, for the petition of my letter. If you can't do anything, don't worry. God will provide us, I'm sure. "omnia possum in quo me confortat"!

While we wait for your answer we remain united by the prayers. God bless you, and the Holy Virgin Mary gives you all the graces you need.

In Christo et Maria,
Sincerely yours,
Fr. Juan Jose Squetino

Cardinal Siri articles bring hope and joy

7/20/92
In Festo S. Hieronymi Aemiliani

Dear Father Jones,

Enclosed please find $40 to help with your expenses in publishing SDCN.

I have just received my Master of Arts in Classics at Stanford University (Sept. '91-diploma presented last month). I received the degree in progress towards the Ph.D., which I hope to receive in two years.

It is my hope and prayer that I may one day lay my services as a Latin and Greek scholar at the feet of the true Pope (the successor of Popes Pius XII and Gregory XVII, if the Cardinal Siri thesis is true). I have been fortunate not only to continue the study of the art of Latin Prose Composition that I began at the University of California in my undergraduate days in the 70s, but also to study Verse Composition, both Latin (hexameters and elegiacs) and Greek (iambic trimeters). Stanford has been fortunate to have one of the few scholars in the English-speaking world who is a master of this dying art. It is a wish close to my heart to enter the Papal service one day as a Doctor of Letters, whether I do this as a priest or as a layman.

Father, your articles on Cardinal Siri, which I first began to read last January, have brought a hope and joy to my heart that I have not felt in years. How I hope that the thesis can be established with moral certitude and that Pope Gregory soon has a successor in the Sacred Chair! What a history the lives and reigns of Pope Pius XII and Pope Gregory XVII make. God mysteriously accomplished His work of Redemption in two different ways: first, we had the Great Teacher, the Great Doctor, Pope Pius, the Angelic Shepherd, who was set like a beacon on a mountain top, and inspired millions of people to follow the Divine Call to holiness; then, following him, we had the hidden Pope, the Pope of Suffering and Silence, Cardinal Siri, who sowed with his tears a secret crop that it will be the part of the coming generation, God willing, to harvest.

Thank you for your heroic efforts, Father, on behalf of the Holy Mother Church. I look forward to future installments of Mr. Giuffré's work. I have been praying frequently of late the Mass Suscitabo mihi in the Roman Missal pro eligendo Summo Pontifice. Let us hope that the whole Catholic world will soon awaken from its nightmare to hear at last those words which should have been proclaimed on 26 October, 1958 and which bring joy and peace to every Catholic heart: Annuntio vobis gaudium magnum: Habemus Papam!

In St. Dominic,

P.S. — re certain remarks made by Mr. Giuffré in the Sept.-Dec. 1991 SDCN, your readers might like to know that many people in France believe that the young King Louis XVII did not die in the Temple, but lived and has left direct descendants in the male line. M. Le Comte Xavier de Roche (who was present, as I was, at Bishop Robert McKenna's consecration as a bishop in France in 1986) published in 1986 a 900-page work in French, the fruit of forty years of research, called Louis XVII (Louis XVII, Xavier de Roche, Editions de Paris, 7 rue de la Cométe, 75007 Paris, 1986). It sets forth, in overwhelming detail, the evidence for this. It seems to me morally certain, as we approach the 200th anniversary (21 January, 1993) of the regicide in France, that a direct descendant of the martyrs (martyrs in body and in reputation) King Louis XVI and Queen Marie Antoinette lives today and is France's True King -- the King lives! It is striking, if this is so and if the Cardinal Siri thesis is true, that both the hidden Pope and the hidden King, upon whom depends, respectively, the succession to the Papal and French Thrones, bore the same reign number: Gregory the Seventeenth and Louis the Seventeenth.

New Mass is different religion

Dear Father Jones and staff,

Thank you again for the September 29, 1992 very informative and Faith reassuring letter. I know you are very busy and I appreciate all good true Traditional Roman Catholic information. I am starving for a traditional Religion the one I was brought up in since April, 1918, til that awful rebellion of V 2. It's been so long since I sent you a donation so here is 20 bucks plus one dollar for four more copies of the Traditional Latin Mass booklet which I want to give to some people who think that humanism is all it. Our bishop brags up luthern women bishops but says nothing about our faithful nuns and Sisters, who have been faithful to God and Tradition, who are up in their 80s in age and are sort of abandoned by our bishop. And no way, does he want a true Traditional Latin Roman Catholic Mass.

If I was a better driver and younger I would drive the 45 miles to St. Thomas Aquinas Seminary in Winona, Minn. to attend Holy Mass on Sunday. Traffic is so terrible that I am afraid of an accident so I drive the mile and a half to the Catholic Church that my grandfather helped start here in Independence and where we were all Baptized and received first Holy Communion and were Confirmed and were happy till 1962 when bishop retired our good priest and brought in his henchmen and threw most of our Sacred things out - which our ancestors worked so hard and sacrificed so much to put into our beautiful Saint Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church. Us older people feel so bad especially about our White Oak and Marble Communion Railing which cannot be replaced, was thrown out and no one seems to know what happened to it.

Now we walk up like a bunch of cattle and stand while some man or woman slaps what they call Body of Christ in your hand while standing. Hardly no one goes to Confession, but everyone goes to communion! I still pray the Ordinary of Mass which is one side Latin and one side English, and follow as best as I can, but there is so much changed and so much omitted, that it doesn't even seem like a Mass. I can't stand that stupid hand shake and standing for Agnus Dei. I tell you Fr. Jones, it's not a Holy Mass at all, it's a different religion that they have been cramming down our throat for over 25 years, in our church that Faithful true Catholics founded and built. I wish I lived closer to Westcliffe.

Best wishes and God's Blessings,

Latin Mass too far a drive, newsletter too expensive

8/1/92

Dear Fr. Daniel Jones,

Thanks for remembering us with an offer to renew your SDCN. Sorry, you are asking too much for too little. We are still interested in you, and love to hear what you are doing and thinking. We think of you often.

Mr. Carr and I are in our mid-eighties, now, but are still alert in mind although slowing down in body. We still see Mr. & Mrs. Wolf occasionally although we are no longer able to travel as far as Tacoma to attend the traditional Latin Mass. When you used to visit us and say Mass, it was held in hotels. But under Mr. Wolf's care and guidance, the group of traditional Catholics finally managed to obtain a church of their own, with resident Priest, alas, we miss not being able to attend.

There is a Pius X Latin Mass north of us in Edmonds, 20 miles away, but even that is too long a drive for us. We have no church now.

I have been to Mexico and remember that lovely chapel on top the hill, with all those beautiful paintings and I have been inside the church on the square below and saw the original Lady of Guadalupe hanging above the high alter there. How wonderful for you to say Mass there.

In 1987 I made a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land and saw the steep marble steps down from the "upper room" across the brook and walked up a modern street to the garden (or what's left of it) of Gethsemane. That, too, was a beautiful church. Most elegant, I thought, of all the many I saw over there. I feel I have been very blessed in being privileged to make these two great Pilgrimages.

Sorry, Daniel, please do not feel hurt we do not subscribe to your newsletter. We still remember you and wish you well.

Connection with Spirit simpler than we think

1/18/92

Dear Dan,

I've certainly missed seeing you, but I know that your efforts are to be the best possible servant of our Creator God, and maybe it's strange, but I'll bet you'll be interested in knowing that my hopes, and prayers, are that I may be the same.

Actually, Dan, I'm sure that, when we know more, we'll find that our connection with the Spirit is much simpler than we now realize. We don't know how it is done, but I'm sure that we are put here, given these opportunities, and the choice, and that the Holy Spirit is here, watching, and hoping.

Dan, if anyone had asked, I certainly wouldn't have expected to be here in the 90s! Your hopes are my hopes — that we may serve Him. We live in a material world, but we have the Book, and the opportunity.

May your efforts be blessed.

Dan: A simple little test — if the Spirit weren't here all the time, how would one know when to pray? Sweet hour of prayer? Yes! But what when your car is stalled on the Tracks?

Latin Mass brings realization and return to the True Faith

3/10/92

Dear Father Jones,

I started going to your parish just a couple months before I had to move to Milwaukee this past September.

First of all, I want to thank you for helping me to realize that the "Novus Ordo" was no longer part of the true faith. A special thanks has to go to Richard also, whose long telephone conversation helped me to get back onto the right path.

I have always enjoyed the Latin Mass as a youth which my wife, Alice (a non-Catholic), was aware of. She made me aware that the Latin Mass was still being said. After attending Mass in your parish for the first time, I felt that I had gone home after so many years of attending the so-called "Novus Ordo" mass. But it became much more that that. I realized, more and more, that I had finally returned to the true faith. Although I had studied to become a priest under the traditional rite, I now feel that with my return, I do appreciate the true faith with much more vigor and conviction.

You might not recall, but I had asked you for advice about my marriage. It was a nice sunny day for a parish get-together at the city park. Your advice was to pray to the Blessed Mother for a sign, a white flower, for example. Although I told no one, I asked Her for a white flower to let me know if I was doing the right thing with my life. After about the fourth day of praying to Her, my prayers, I truly believe, were answered. My wife, who I said was a non-Catholic, gave me a white carnation. It had broken off of a vase of flowers which she had received from one of the children, and she said it was for me. She had absolutely no idea that I had asked for a sign from the Blessed Mother. After turning as white as a ghost, I explained the situation to her. Since that time the Blessed Mother has a special place in my heart. I have asked Her many times to intercede for me with various problems, and they have always been taken care of.

I joined Our Lady of the Rosary parish here in Milwaukee. I talked to Father Bernard, a Capuchin priest, and he said that he had not met you, but had talked to you once by phone. Before closing, I wish to thank you and Richard once again. I now have peace of mind and thank God every day for guiding me back onto the right path.

I will write again soon, and the next time I will include a subscription fee, so I can start receiving your newsletter every month.

Yours In Christ,

Weaver tragedy brings much sorrow

11/8/92

Dear Father Daniel E. Jones,

As always it was good hearing from you.

Thank you for the leaflet "The Traditional Latin Mass" which we here have been deprived of much to our sorrow, God grant the return of our church to its former Holy Tridentine glory.

I was overwhelmed with great sorrow, as I learned of the tragedy of the Weaver family. A tragedy that goes beyond common murder; is it possible for such as this to come to pass? I lack words to equal the overall situation.

As you intended, I also voted for James "Bo" Gritz of the Populist Party.

Help save the United States from the Federal Reserve

4/29/92

Dear Friends,

The enclosed extract on the Federal Reserve System is sent to you with the hope that you will do the following:

1. Make a list of your friends, relatives, acquaintances and other.

2. Photocopy the material and this letter and mail to your list. The copy of the letter will serve as a request for them to do likewise.

In this way we would be starting a chain-letter effect. You would not need to write anything if you did not wish to do so:

God has given us a wonderful country. We have a duty to do what we can to save it from the destruction that is bearing down upon us. Victory will be gained if everyone is appraised of the truth.

Sincerely yours,

The Federal Reserve System

To give you an idea of how heinous this Act really was you must understand that your Founding Fathers realized the power of money. They knew that whoever held this power would control the country so they were extremely careful when writing the Constitution to set forth in writing that only the elected representatives of the people would have the power to coin the nation's currency.

The Constitutional language was brief and concise. It was plain enough so that the average citizen could understand it without the interpretation of some lawyer. In Article II, Sec. 8, par. 15 you can read - and this defines the power of congress, "to coin money, regulate the value thereof and of foreign coins, and standards of weights and measures."

On that tragic day in December (23) 1913, a Day of infamy much greater than anything the Japanese could do to Pearl Harbor, the men you sent to Washington to protect the Constitution from all enemies without and within delivered the economic destiny of America into the hands of international aliens (gray men) who hate you and everything you as Americans stand for.

Today almost 80 years after this act of treason, most Americans believe that The Federal Reserve System is part of the American Government. They have no idea that is is governed by Federal banks whose heads are aliens who are members of the International Illuminati conspiracy.

Who are these bankers? According to sources who are quite reliable in Switzerland, the following banks hold the controlling interest in The Federal Reserve System. They are all Jewish owned and/or controlled. In their order of importance they are:

1. Rothschild Bank of London and Berlin
2. Lazard Brothers Bank of Paris
3. Israel Moses Seif Bank of Italy
4. Warburg Bank of Amsterdam and Hamburg
5. Lehman Brothers, New York City
6. Kuehn Loeb Bank of New York City
7. Chase Manhattan Bank of New York City (David Rockefeller)

8. Goldman, Sachs Bank of New York City

Please take note that the first four banks are foreign banks in location as well as origin and ownership.

Approximately 300 people who are closely associated, many by marriage, own and control this system by holding stock or shares in the system. They control an interlocking international banking cartel of wealth beyond comparison most of which has been stolen from the working man of America through The Federal Reserve Systems.

How Does It Work?

First, the U.S. needs, say, a billion dollars to pay bills. Secondly, it notifies the U.S. Bureau of Engraving to print one billion dollars in U.S. Bonds. Thirdly the U.S. Government delivers the bonds to the Federal Reserve bank as Promissory Notes. The U.S. Government promises to pay for these, its own Bonds, when they mature, fourthly, the Federal Reserve Bank deposits these bonds for which they paid nothing, with the comptroller of currency, and then the Federal Reserve receives one billion dollars in Federal Reserve notes, the currency you now use, in various denominations — thinking it to be "money". Then note how you get "had".

The Federal Reserve Bank retains ownership of the one billion dollars in bonds which it received free of charge.

The Federal Reserve notes are now distributed to member banks, so they have money available to pay the bills of government, cash government checks citizens have received, make loans to citizens (Please note that under present banking laws, member banks can loan out some twenty times the amount they have on deposit over and over and over and over. . .).

Then the Federal Reserve Bank receives interest on its bonds, for which they paid nothing. Note now how they laid it on you good people! First the Federal Reserve got a billion dollars for nothing. Meantime they get interest on the bonds they got for nothing and when they eventually cash them they get the money again. Now we are speaking of a mere "billion" - your Government now deals in "trillions". For example, you borrow tremendous amounts each year so that you can give it away in foreign loans - mostly to nations who despise you.

It has been said before, most wisely: "It will only be as decent people in America who are concerned for the well-being of our nation and our offspring, and wake up from this 'near fatal sleep' into which the conspirators have hypnotized us. Can these powerful conspirators be smashed? It will only come through the HELP of Almighty God, and the repentance of His people so that He will once again show mercy to us."

If you believe these conspirators are content with the control of your money, you are miserably in error, and you are in for additional shock after shock after shock.

Here is where the real nut comes into play. While the Federal Reserve could control America's money, there was no way it could touch the earnings of the American worker, because your Constitution expressly forbids it — But Snakes in the Woodpile - you simply get stabbed with a plank out of the Communist Manifesto — it was called the Graduated Progressive Income Tax. This would lead eventually to the complete confiscation of all private property in the nation and the complete control of each individual's earning power. However, such a tax could not be brought about without an amendment to the Constitution.

But, as they had done with the Federal Reserve Act, these same traitors, with the same President, arranged for the 16th Amendment to become the law of the land and they "hoodwinked" the American people into accepting this absolute control over their earning power.

A little research will show you that most of the Congressmen who voted for the 16th Amendment knew very little about it because only two had even bothered to read it before they voted it into law.

The foregoing is extracted from "Counterfeit Blessings" published by America West Distributors, P.O. Box 2208, Carson City, Nevada 89702.

The fastest way to receive orders is to have delivery by UPS. The charge for the first book is $3.75, and $1.00 for each additional book. The price of "Counterfeit Blessings" is $10.00, as is the price for many other similar wonderful books.

Publish smaller newsletter, more often

Dear Father Daniel,

Thank you for your two-page Newsletter September 1992. May I make the following suggestion: publish such a two-page letter only which would replace the SDCN, but appear more frequently. This is what Fr. Kevin Vaillancourt does (see enclosure) but you could restrict yours to every second month. No reimbursement would then be necessary to your subscribers. Two or three photographs will of course make it more attractive. The September 1992 issue is excellent! Just the most essential.

You will find enclosed a photograph of + Bishop Carmona's successor, pursuant to my letter of 11 September 1992. Bishop RIPOLL-PUGA belongs to the Order of Saint Francis of Assisi, is 52, was a medical doctor by profession. I do not know whether he still exercises his medical profession. Here is his exact address: Most Rev. Francisco Héctor de la Cruz RIPOLL-PUGA, Calle 74 Num. 500 A, Mérida, Yucatàn, Mexico, C. P. 97000. He is of course celibate. He was consecrated bishop of 15 August 1992.

Bishop RIPOLL-PUGA was ordained priest by bishop Carmona in 1984. It would certainly be for the glory of the Church to make the above known to the readers of your Newsletter.

I am expecting bishop Kozik and Fr. Marie-Bernard on Friday, 6 November, here in Geneva. He plans to send 2 Sisters to Russia, Mongolia. Fr. Werenfried van Straaten's office in Luzern, Switzerland will provide us with the necessary contacts. As you may already know, bishop Kozik's conference in Tokyo, Japan, met with great success. In January, he will visit bishop Bedingfeld in South Africa. He really is a great missionary.

Yours in Jesus & Mary,
Heidi

Dear Father Daniel,

You have recently received from me the text of the BAPTISM OF THE UNBORN, the background story relating to it and a photocopy of the leaflet "Children, things to be thrown away?" for publication in your bulletin.

As a confirmation of the above, a friend of mine has given me the enclosed photograph showing Our Lord Jesus Christ who, deeply grieved by the horrible murder of abortion, is holding a fetus in his hand. This picture reminds you of the agony of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane where he suffered for all the sins of the past, the present and the future. The photograph was taken by a young man of 17 years at Schio near Padua, Italy, who photographed the sun and was very astonished that instead of the sun, his camera produced this photograph. As is known, the sun is the symbol of Christ. Cf. Apocalypse Chapter 12.1: "And a great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars." The church is clothed with the sun, that is, with Christ. (Douay Rheims Bible).

My friend explained to me that this young man is a friend of a privileged Italian, called Renato, who is being favoured by apparitions of Our Lady and has a beautiful chapel dedicated to her. It was at Renato's advice that the young man photographed the sun. It is quite evident that this miraculous photograph is another warning by Our Lord against the crime of abortion.

I would ask you to publish this photograph with the above explanation also in your newsletter.
Yours sincerely in the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

African Catholics need prayer for their priest

4/22/92

Dear Father Jones,

I am an African boy of 21 years in very small town of Izingolweni between Harding and Port Shepstone. In our community we are the only traditional Catholics right in the middle of the modern churches, especially me. All my neighbours are the modernists, their church is next to my house.

The church building that we were using before, their bishop kicked us out of it. We went to their old school to pray the Holy Mass on Sundays. After some weeks they followed us and kicked us off of their school, so we went to the bush to pray there while we were still building our hut that we are using now. This hut although it is big enough, it is full now because some people are beginning to see the truth, most of them from the modern church and the protestants, they start to repent. Now our church has just become very small. Sometimes people sit in the verunder. Our problem is that we have got no sufficient money to extend it. We just stay here as the abundant Catholics. In 1989 Satan got hold of some people in Surban, one of our large towns. They took our old priest to the bush where they left him naked and took his bakkie and ran away. From then he had never have a car.

When he is going out the to the outstations he hires some peoples' cars. One day he had no car to hire, he walked nearly 26km to the outstation called Fatima. So we need prayers as well as volunteers to help that poor old priest Fr. Jerome. We also need prayers for we have a lot of Psuedoprophets. They mislead people, everybody is going crazy with these people. Everyday you can see a lot of people carrying water to these people, even the Catholics are found there. Lastly I would like you to send me your Newsnotes "Sangre de Cristo" if you can please, and I'll look forward to your reply.

IRS evicts family from home

Please note change of address. The IRS had us evicted from our home of 30 years by Federal Marshals with guns who gave us 10 minutes to get dressed and get out.

This was on January 16 at 0800 on the coldest day of the year.

We are staying at a couple's home. They offered us a bedroom which was their daughter's before she was married. Not many people would be so generous!

It's a long story — but my husband did not owe the debt they (IRS) claimed. You used to have an "exchange" with him as "Constitutional Revival" at our old address.

RAW FOOD & ENZYMES

THE CASE AGAINST ENZYMES:

The role of ENZYMES in the food for both man and animals all too frequently has been a neglected subject scientifically, so far as nutrition is concerned. For example, in 1952 before eight witnesses, Dr. Elmer Nelson, one-time chief medical consultant of the FDA, stated his opinion that a person could live from birth to a ripe old age just as well on all cooked foods (where the enzymes have been killed) as he could on all raw or a mixture of cooked and raw foods.

It has been established by some so-called "experts" that whole grains contain an insoluble substance know as PHYTIN, which inhibits the assimilation of calcium.

Many experiments have been performed which demonstrate that some animals die more quickly on whole grains than on white flour because this insoluble phytin prevents the assimilation of the calcium in the whole grain, thus causing rickets in the animal.

This occurs despite the fact that the whole grain has 4 times as much calcium and phosphorus as the white flour does. The food processors and refiners and certain persons in the FDA have seized upon these experiments, stating that "there is no evidence to indicate that white flour isn't just as good a food and just as nutritious as whole wheat flour."

THE CASE FOR ENZYMES

In animal feeding it has been recognized for years that exogenous enzymes (from the intestinal flora) are important in the digestion of cellulose. In 1949 Edward Mellanby (et al) in London established, with animal experiments over 5 generations, that the phytin combination (of phosphoric acid, magnesium and calcium) of the whole grain unbleached flour is broken down into assimilable form by enzymatic action when lukewarm water is added to the whole unbleached flour during the yeast raising period, or by the action of the phytase (phosphatase) enzymes of the unbleached whole grain during digestion.

Perhaps as an outgrowth of Edward Mellanby's experiments proving the need for soaking cereal grains in advance so the enzymatic action could break up the phytin into its soluble component parts, several scientists in the Department of Poultry Science, State College of Washington performed experiments using native barley, soaked 7 hours, as against imported corn.

These experiments established the fact that the enzymatic action is sufficient after 7 hours to enable the animals to utilize the barley ingredients with better overall results than when fed corn.

The important points, therefore, are: First: that the whole grain must NOT be bleached, for bleaching kills the enzymes, and Second: that the whole unbleached grain should be soaked in water for a substantial period before baking to permit time for the phytase (phosphatase) enzymes to break up the phytin so as to release the phosphates for combining with the abundance of calcium found in the whole grain.

Thus we find that bread made as our grandmothers made it, by letting the unbleached whole grain flour soak overnight, produced a food which though cooked, was just as good as other foods are when eaten raw because the enzymatic action had done its job before heat was applied.

Note: Soaking grains to make nutrients more available may not be necessary for optimally nourished people, such as the Hunzas who consume highly mineralized diets of quality foods. However, where food quality is questionable, or the intake of minerals is minimal, particular attention should be given to this method of preparing grains.

SPECIAL ATTENTION NEEDED!

Special attention should be given to grain preparations for the elderly (who may assimilate minerals less efficiently), for the young, and for those for whom grains constitute the major dietary staple.

The inability of pasteurized milk to afford assimilable calcium is no doubt based on loss of the phosphatase enzymes through heat treatment. Those who say there is no evidence for the need of enzymes in food should explain why God put a half dozen, or more, in milk.

Dr. F. Pottenger showed in his celebrated cat tests that calcium was not properly delivered to bones and teeth if the animals were fed pasteurized milk, and that condensed milk was even worse. His cats developed pyorrhea and arthritis very quickly. It is very significant that experiments with human subjects showed that, even on starvation diets, they had no pyorrhea or arthritis and practically no tooth decay whey they used a minimum of cooked foods.

BREAD RECIPES

Below are two BREAD RECIPES that you may want to try:

BREAD RECIPE NUMBER ONE:

Ingredients:
2-1/2 Cups water or milk
1/4 Cup honey
3 Tablespoons sesame oil
6 Cups whole wheat flour (you may wish to use rice, corn or soy flours in varying proportions)
1 Yeast cake or 1 Tablespoon yeast granules
2 Tablespoons water

MIX water or milk, oil, and honey. STIR well. MIX with flour. COVER with a towel or Saran Wrap and let stand overnight or a minimum of 7 hours. ADD yeast. KNEAD and return to oiled bowl. COVER and let rise until doubled in size in a fairly warm atmosphere. KNEAD and divide into two loaves. GREASE bread pans and place shaped loaves in them. LET RISE another 20 minutes. BAKE 75 minutes (1 hour & 15 minutes) at a temperature of 325 degrees F.

BREAD RECIPE NUMBER TWO:

Ingredients:
2 Pkgs yeast
1/3 Cup oil, or melted butter
2 Eggs
7 Cups unbleached flour or whole wheat flour
2 teaspoons salt
2 Tablespoons honey
2 Cups warm water

MIX all ingredients except YEAST in a bowl. KNEAD for 15 minutes. Place in a well greased bowl and cover. LET SIT OVERNIGHT. Next morning, ADD the yeast to the mixture and let rise. KNEAD and divide into loaves. PLACE in greased bread pans. LET RISE another 20 minutes. Bake as directed:
(If using 1/2 whole wheat & 1/2 white flour, Bake at 375 degrees F for 35-40 minutes. If using unbleached white flour only, then BAKE 30-35 minutes at 375 degrees F.)

Editor's Clarification: In Ken's July, 1991 article entitled: "Scriptural Bread," he said to include the yeast and let it rise overnight or a minimum of 5-8 hours. Adding yeast at either stage is fine. The main emphasis is letting the whole grains sit overnight, not the yeast.

Ken also has the ability to obtain bread making equipment for you if you so desire!

PRESS ON REGARDLESS

April 21, 1992

Dear Father Jones,
Here is a picture of Erin's baptism for you.
I hope the plans for your trip are going well.
We are busy here caring for this wonderful little baby and all the ranchwork. Still though we hope to either get to mass or perhaps you'll be heading our way one of these days.

with warmest regards,
Sincerely,
Lisa. Rehfeld

Erin Marie Rehfeld's Baptism in Pueblo, Colorado, March 15, 1992.

While attending a Winter Bible Camp in the Four Corners Area of Colorado in December of 1990, Christi Moreland, Michelle Bollinger and Stephanie Bollinger enjoyed some tubing in Durango with young Christopher Jones (oldest son of my brother Mike).

Manuel Rodriguez, Jr. and Kathy Ann Hermann had their marriage blessed in Pueblo November 22, 1992. Kathy also became a Catholic and received her First Holy Communion that day!

Brother Steve Jones gets a lesson in "Bull" riding on Thanksgiving Day at the John Moreland homestead in Olathe, Colorado.

Sister Mary Francesca, SND, and Sister Mary Odile, SND, arrive in Westcliffe, December 1, 1992, on their way to open a mission in Delta.

After Mass in Delta, Colorado, on December 13, the sisters get acquainted with some of the young people in the parish.

Dear Father Dan:

Please allow me to thank you for publishing my letter concerning Western Rites in the Orthodox Church, a while back. I have had several inquiries and have been afforded the opportunity of making some good friends as a result of it.

When we are busy with the Lord's business we are not always able to keep in contact with friends as we would like. This is especially true in these days when we have a shortage of good priests and even the bishops must join them in "running the mission circuit." In addition to praying for peace and all our other intentions, all of us must redouble our prayers for vocations. Only with new laborers in the vineyard -- priests, brothers, sisters -- will we keep what modicum of sanity we have left! There is entirely too much work to be accomplished and too few worthy laborers.

In light of the above, I have the pleasure to inform you that we have a female monastery in a section of Phoenix that follows the Western Rite, with services in old English. The monastery, named after the Holy Archangel Michael, has just opened its novitiate building and is ready to accept young women interested in trying their vocations for the service of God. Though not totally cloistered in the sense that the nuns have little contact with the outside world, the monastery is mostly contemplative though its members are not bound to any vow of silence. The Daily Offices are very much a part of St. Michael's schedule, though. Anyone interested in learning more about St. Michael's Monastery should write to:

Editor's note: Bishop Roman and I have been in touch with each other for many years. I also am on friendly terms with a dear Orthodox priest in Delta, Colorado, whose name is also Father Daniel Jones. We traditional Catholics must show charity, kindness and a warm hospitality to fellow Christians whose hearts are good. Too many of us imitate the Pharisee who criticised the publican when the two went to the temple to pray.

Dear Father Daniel,

As promised in my last letter, you will find enclosed the 5 photographs sent to me by Sister Marie-Faustine on Bishop Kozik's mission to Cameroon where she went too with other Sisters in July last, shortly after our departure. Bishop Kozik really is tireless! I suggested to him that he visit Bishop Bedingfeld in South Africa who would like to see him, ashe very much needs his advice based on the experience in Cameroon. As you will have seen from Bishop Bedingfeld's fascinating Padre Pio Newsletter, he has now 4 candidates for the priesthood and will one day need priestly vestments and other liturgical objects suitable for the tropics.

Thank you very much for the photographs taken in Paris, etc. I have just been with the photographer KODAK here in Geneva to have reproductions made for Fr. Alain Véron, Archbishop Enos, Mgr Berthout who will shortly be visiting Le Fréchou. As he is a qualified tacher-professor, he may teach at the school in Mézin. He has indeed heard that the Sisters there are very good. Mr. Le Guinio, who receives SDCN , will also get your photographs, as he is always very much interested in developments in the USA etc.and enjoys your paper.

Don Krueger wrote to me a very nice letter. Let me explain to you that the delay in the English translation is most probably due to Fr. Bernard-Marie's absence in Cameroon and also to the re-editing of the big Autobiography of Archbishop Thuc which is being printed there in book-form, much better than the first edition. I am sure that you will get the printed English version as soon as possible. I have replied to Don Krueger's letter immediately, giving him the address and telephone numbers in New York of the Sisters there, where he can get the video.

I was very happy to make your acquaintance and of the other pilgrims. You are a very devoted priest. There is no need to acknowledge receipt of my mail. I know how overburdened you are and hope that Fr. Philippe can relieve you a little.

Yours sincerely in Jesus and Mary: Heidi.

5 photographs enclosed.

P.S. Mr. Filiberto in Turin informed me that Bishop Pivarunas sent a circular-letter to his European friends advising them of his visit in fall. As I did not get this letter, I asked Mr. Filiberto to send me a photocopy. You may already know of this planned visit to Europe.

Bishop Roger Kozik presides over 20 or so Baptisms in Cameroun, July 1992.

Dear Margaret O'Leary,

You sent me copy of your letter of Jan. 3, 1993 to Rev. Fr. Lucian Pulvermacher who is a very good priest and I am therefore certain that his advice was for the benefit of your immortal soul which is in the utmost danger of being lost.

With regard to the messages of your guardian angel, there is a great contradiction between what you were told previously and now. It is quite evident that your guardian angel has been driven away through your letting into your soul a bad spirit dictating you now these evil messages which are easily recognizable by their clever mixture of truth and lies. They have nothing to do with the Church established by our Redeemer Jesus Christ and Her Doctrine. They are in complete contradiction with the Apocalypse written especially for the present time (cf "The Mystical City of God" by Maria of Agreda, obtainable with other good books from Tan Books & Publishers, Inc., P.O. Box 424, Rockford, Illinois 61105).

It is surprising that you did not recognize the free-masonry pyramid on the front cover, first inside page and back cover of the book "Phoenix Operator-Owner Manual" which is a curious mixture of pantheism, evolution, cosmopolitanism and Jewish Zionism . This book reminds uf of the Flying Saucers which were steered by bad spirits giving similar messages to mankind. However, they have been demasked as such, but the infernal serpent had only withdrawn some time and is now spreading its poison in a somewhat different version, so as not to be easily recognizable.

Bishop Bedingfeld and Anthony McCormick in South Africa request you to stop sending them such rubbish which will immediately be burnt on arrival.

What can be done to free you from the clutches of the devil of which you seem to be quite unaware ? The Church has excellent remedies by driving him out by means of the exorcism. Our Lady also has come to our help and recommended the prayer to Her Tears which destroys the power of hell. As I have personally made this experience over and over again, I am enclosing the text. If you would like to receive the Rosary itself (7x7 pearls) I can send it to you. It is the rope of salvation for your immortal soul which risks to be drawn into the eternal darkness and fire of hell. Please consider your advanced age before it is too late !

Copy of this letter is going to all persons to whom you are likely to have sent the evil messages. I do hope and pray that you will be turning away your heart from such fables in order to follow the wholesome Truth revealed by the Sacred Scriptures (cf St. Paul).

Yours sincerely in Jesus & Mary:

Heidi Hagen
